Application and permit fees are increasing 3.86% effective February 1, 2024 per the Consumer Price Index (CPI). In 2022, Beaverton City Council adopted updates to fees for development applications and permits, including establishing an automatic annual inflation adjustment tied to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) annual inflation rate published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. New fee schedules can be found here.

Our attorney is working with me on this subject. For your purposes at this point, please use my email from May 2nd as our response to the transportations issues identified in their latest letter. The district is operating within our approved enrollment for the site and the issues identified are not applicable to the approval criteria.

I almost forgot, wanted to check back in and see if BSD would be providing any additional updates on the transportation analysis. I mentioned on Tuesday that CoB is requesting a written response to the city's latest letter.

Thanks,

Guys –

Just a heads up. I uploaded a landscaping plan for Greenway and resubmitted for Mountainside Batting Sheds.

Enjoy your weekend!
